  E       Em               B
You must really consider the circus
  E       Em               B
It just might be your kind of more perfect

      A                    B
For a person as perfect as you.

you lonely
  E       Em               B
Cause I wouldn't know where to begin E          A
Well I know that you'll think B
of me only
  E       Em               B
When the snakes come marching in.

When the snakes come marching
in.
