[Verse 2]

```
             G          D           C      D
I might have had a side kick with a funny name
         G               D        C          D
Running wild through the hills chasing Jesse James
G      D         C        D
Ending up on the brink of danger
G           D          C      D
Riding shotgun for the Texas Rangers
    G         D          C          D
Go west young man, haven't you been told
    G          D          C         D
California's full of whisky, women and gold
         G         D              C       D
Sleeping out all night beneath the desert stars
   G          D         C            Cadd9
A dream in my eye and a prayer in my heart
```

Stealing a young girl's heart
G         D         C
Just like Gene and Roy

Singing those campfire songs

I'd be wearing my six-shooter, riding my pony on a cattle drive

Stealing a young girl's heart
